

V. INTERNATIONAL STUDY

Exchange Programs

Exchange programs offer students an opportunity to take courses at an agricultural college in Canada or overseas for varying periods of time and receive credit toward their diploma. In return, students from the host college may study at one of the University of Guelph Associate Diploma program locations.

For regulations on exchange programs and letter of permission refer to Chapter VIII--Associate Diploma Regulations and Procedures.