HISTORY (HIST)

HIST*6000 Historiography Unspecified [0.50]
This course will introduce students to some of the essential components of the historical process. It will also assess history as a cognitive discipline in contemporary society. While the scope of the course may extend from ancient times to the present, emphasis on the historiography of particular periods may vary according to instructor expertise and student research needs.

Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6040 Special Reading Course Unspecified [0.50]
Students selecting this course should speak to individual instructors to arrive at appropriate topics.

Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6150 Archival Research Unspecified [0.50]
This course will consist of classroom teaching, practical instruction and hands-on work within the collections available at the University of Guelph’s Archives. It will introduce students to basic skills in the digitization of sources and teach competence in conservation, record creation and archival research.

Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6190 Topics in Scottish History I Unspecified [0.50]
This course will introduce students to selected aspects of medieval and early modern Scottish history and historiography, including the use of source materials, and practical training involving manuscripts in the University Archives.

Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6191 Scottish History I Research Unspecified [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6190 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.

Prerequisite(s): HIST*6190 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6200 Scottish Highland and Lowland History Unspecified [0.50]
This course will introduce students to selected aspects of Scottish history and historiography considered from a Highlands perspective and a (sometimes significantly different) Lowlands perspective, including issues surrounding the selection and use of source materials, and provide practical training involving manuscripts in the University Archives.

Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6201 Scottish Highland and Lowland Research Unspecified [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6200 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.

Prerequisite(s): HIST*6200 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6230 Canada: Culture and Society Unspecified [0.50]
A course that examines the current historiography of selected aspects of Canadian history. Topics will vary with the expertise of individual instructors.

Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6231 Canada: Culture and Society Research Unspecified [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6230 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.

Prerequisite(s): HIST*6230 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6280 Canada: Community and Identity Unspecified [0.50]
A course that examines the current historiography of selected aspects of Canadian history. Topics will vary with the expertise of individual instructors.

Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6281 Canada: Community and Identity Research Unspecified [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6280 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.

Prerequisite(s): HIST*6280 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6290 Topics in North American History Unspecified [0.50]
Depending on the expertise of the instructor, this course may concentrate on either the United States or Canada, or it may select an historical theme or themes common to the larger continent.

Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6291 North American History Research Unspecified [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6290 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.

Prerequisite(s): HIST*6290 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6300 Topics in Modern European History I Unspecified [0.50]
This seminar course will focus on selected aspects of the political and social history of Europe between 1789 and 1989. Topics to be examined will vary according to the expertise of the faculty and the interest of the students.

Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6301 Modern European History Research I Unspecified [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6300 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.

Prerequisite(s): HIST*6300 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph
HIST*6310  Topics in Modern European History II  [0.50]
This seminar course will focus on selected aspects of the political and social history of Europe between 1789 and 1989. Topics to be examined will vary according to the expertise of the faculty and the interest of the students.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6311  Modern European History Research II  [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6310 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.
Prerequisite(s): HIST*6310 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6360  History of Sexuality and Gender  [0.50]
This course will examine the history of gender and/or sexuality in different cultures, paying close attention to various theoretical approaches to understanding the history of gender and/or sexuality. The chronological and geographic focus of the course may vary according to the interests and expertise of the instructor.
Restriction(s): Restricted to History masters students.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6361  Sexuality History Research  [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6360 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.
Prerequisite(s): HIST*6360
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6370  Topics in Cultural History  [0.50]
History 6370 investigates the practices of cultural history and the utility of the cultural history paradigm in the investigation of topics including politics and power, religion, war, empire, gender, class, ‘race’, ethnicity, the environment, and consumption.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6371  Cultural History Research  [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6370 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.
Prerequisite(s): HIST*6370 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6380  Topics in Early Modern European History  [0.50]
This seminar course examines current issues in early modern European history as selected by the instructor(s). Participants review current research and historiography, discuss the principal debates, and develop their own perspectives through encounters with primary source materials.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6381  Early Modern European History Research  [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6380 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.
Prerequisite(s): HIST*6380 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6400  Major Paper  [1.00]
This is to be a major piece of research, based on the extensive use of primary sources. An oral examination of this work is required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6450  Quantitative Evidence and Historical Methods  [0.50]
An overview of the use for historical research of quantitative evidence and methodologies.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6500  Topics in Global History  [0.50]
This is a topical course, that explores the history of processes that take place on a worldwide scale. These may include social, cultural, economic, or environmental processes.
Restriction(s): Restricted to History masters students
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6501  Global History Research  [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6500 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.
Prerequisite(s): HIST*6500 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6520  Topics in Latin American History  [0.50]
In-depth study of a particular event or process in Latin American history. Topics may include: religions, women, race and ethnicity, environment issues, intellectual history, or have a regional or temporal focus.
Restriction(s): Restricted to History masters students.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6521  Latin American History Research  [0.50]
Continuation of HIST*6520 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.
Prerequisite(s): HIST*6520 - Minimum grade 065.
Restriction(s): Instructor’s consent required.
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph

HIST*6550  Rural History  [0.50]
The countryside was not the city in all regards; it had its own complex trajectory intersecting with the rest of society in interesting and surprising ways. This seminar course introduces students to the economic, social, and cultural themes of rural history. Readings come from a variety of disciplines and explore the environment, agriculture, other resource-based activities, gender, cultural traditions, material artifacts and consumption. These themes will be related to community, identity and the countryside’s relationship to the larger society.
Restriction(s): Restricted to History masters students
Department(s): Department of History
Location(s): Guelph
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Course Title</th>
<th>Location(s)</th>
<th>Department(s)</th>
<th>Offering(s)</th>
<th>Prerequisite(s)</th>
<th>Restriction(s)</th>
<th>Restrictions</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6560</td>
<td>Rural History Research Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6550 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This course will explore the history of modern tourism, examining the distinctions between travel and tourism in historical discourses and historiography, and engaging extensively with primary source material to examine the sector’s evolution in trans-national perspective. Emphasis is placed on the development of key institutions, the influence of political environments, intercultural encounters, environmental impacts and global citizenship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6570</td>
<td>Health, Science, Medicine Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6570 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will examine how history is displayed in public and the formation of historical consciousness. Areas of public history to be discussed may include digital history, museum exhibits, television and film productions, historical re-enactments, commemorations, celebrations, public holidays, monuments and historic sites.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6580</td>
<td>Health, Science, Medicine Research Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6570 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will examine the history of health, science, and medicine. Topics may include the histories of mental illness, epidemic diseases, disability, public health, or alternative medicine. It will address expert and popular constructions of health, illness and science.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6590</td>
<td>Public History, Heritage, and Historical Consciousness Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6590 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will examine how history is displayed in public and the formation of historical consciousness. Areas of public history to be discussed may include digital history, museum exhibits, television and film productions, historical re-enactments, commemorations, celebrations, public holidays, monuments and historic sites.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6600</td>
<td>Public History Research Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6590 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will explore the history of modern tourism, examining the distinctions between travel and tourism in historical discourses and historiography, and engaging extensively with primary source material to examine the sector’s evolution in trans-national perspective. Emphasis is placed on the development of key institutions, the influence of political environments, intercultural encounters, environmental impacts and global citizenship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6610</td>
<td>Histories of Tourism and Travel Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6590 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will explore the history of modern tourism, examining the distinctions between travel and tourism in historical discourses and historiography, and engaging extensively with primary source material to examine the sector’s evolution in trans-national perspective. Emphasis is placed on the development of key institutions, the influence of political environments, intercultural encounters, environmental impacts and global citizenship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6620</td>
<td>Tourism, and Travel Histories Research Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6590 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will explore the history of modern tourism, examining the distinctions between travel and tourism in historical discourses and historiography, and engaging extensively with primary source material to examine the sector’s evolution in trans-national perspective. Emphasis is placed on the development of key institutions, the influence of political environments, intercultural encounters, environmental impacts and global citizenship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6630</td>
<td>Indigenous Research Relations and Methodologies Fall and Winter [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>This course examines the development of Indigenous research methodologies in the academy in North America and invites students to engage in contemporary debates about how to best research and represent Indigenous issues. Students will consider the politics of knowledge mobilization, academic freedom, and intellectual theft.</td>
<td>Offered alternate years</td>
<td></td>
<td>All doctoral students attend the professional development seminar in their first year of the program. The seminar is designed to prepare students for success as a PhD student for their future careers.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6590</td>
<td>Public History, Heritage, and Historical Consciousness Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6590 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will examine how history is displayed in public and the formation of historical consciousness. Areas of public history to be discussed may include digital history, museum exhibits, television and film productions, historical re-enactments, commemorations, celebrations, public holidays, monuments and historic sites.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6600</td>
<td>Public History Research Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6590 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will explore the history of modern tourism, examining the distinctions between travel and tourism in historical discourses and historiography, and engaging extensively with primary source material to examine the sector’s evolution in trans-national perspective. Emphasis is placed on the development of key institutions, the influence of political environments, intercultural encounters, environmental impacts and global citizenship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6610</td>
<td>Histories of Tourism and Travel Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6590 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will explore the history of modern tourism, examining the distinctions between travel and tourism in historical discourses and historiography, and engaging extensively with primary source material to examine the sector’s evolution in trans-national perspective. Emphasis is placed on the development of key institutions, the influence of political environments, intercultural encounters, environmental impacts and global citizenship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*6620</td>
<td>Tourism, and Travel Histories Research Unspecified [0.50]</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>Continuation of HIST*6590 in which students prepare an in-depth research paper based on primary sources.</td>
<td>Instructor’s consent required.</td>
<td></td>
<td>This seminar course will explore the history of modern tourism, examining the distinctions between travel and tourism in historical discourses and historiography, and engaging extensively with primary source material to examine the sector’s evolution in trans-national perspective. Emphasis is placed on the development of key institutions, the influence of political environments, intercultural encounters, environmental impacts and global citizenship.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course Code</td>
<td>Course Title</td>
<td>Department(s)</td>
<td>Location(s)</td>
<td>Credits</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------------</td>
<td>--------------------------------------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------</td>
<td>-------------</td>
<td>---------</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7140</td>
<td>Early Modern European History Major Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7150</td>
<td>Modern European History Major Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7170</td>
<td>Race, Slavery, and Imperialism Major Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7190</td>
<td>War and Society Major Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7250</td>
<td>Cold War Era History Major Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7260</td>
<td>Medieval History Major Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7270</td>
<td>World History Major Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7280</td>
<td>Indigenous Histories of Turtle Island Major</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7590</td>
<td>War and Society Minor Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7600</td>
<td>Canadian History Minor Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7610</td>
<td>British History Minor Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7620</td>
<td>Scottish History Minor Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7630</td>
<td>Community Studies Minor Seminar</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7640</td>
<td>Early Modern European History Minor</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7650</td>
<td>Modern European History Minor</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIST*7660</td>
<td>Gender, Women and Family Minor</td>
<td>Department of History</td>
<td>Guelph</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Restrictions:
- Instructor's consent required.

Students are required to write and successfully defend a thesis of such cogency and originality as will represent a significant contribution to knowledge. The thesis will normally be between 50,000 and 90,000 words in length. University of Guelph regulations and procedures govern this process.