Academic Standings

A department may require examinations (oral and/or written), from time to time, to evaluate the student’s progress. Numeric grades must be assigned to indicate the student’s standing in courses except where otherwise specified.

• Grade Schedule and Interpretation (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/grade-interpretation/)
• Grading Procedures (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/grading-procedures/)
• Examinations (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/examinations/)
• Thesis Assessment (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/thesis-assessment/)
• Prescribed Studies (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/prescribed-studies/)
• Additional Courses (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/additional-courses/)
• Credit/No Credit Grading Option (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/credit-no-credit-grading-option/)
• Departmental Review (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/departmental-review/)
• Student Progress Report (calendar.uoguelph.ca/graduate-calendar/general-regulations/academic-standings/student-progress-report/)