

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND PUBLIC POLICY

The MA in Criminal Justice and Public Policy (CJPP) is a program jointly run by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology and the Department of Political Science. As such, the program provides students with an advanced understanding of crime and criminology, criminal justice policy, and the governance and administration of the justice system in Canada. The program blends academic theory and methods with applied experiential opportunities to equip students with the skills required to pursue further graduate studies, employment, or career advancement.
