

GERMAN (GERM)

School of Languages and Literatures, College of Arts

Note: admission, including internal or external transfer, to the German minor has been suspended. For more information, please contact the School of Languages and Literatures.

All language courses carry 0.50 credits. Students with two years of high school German or equivalent may not be admitted into GERM*1100 Introductory German I. Students with 12U German credit or its equivalent may be admitted into GERM*1110 Introductory German II only with the approval of the department. All language students are advised to include LING*1000 Introduction to Linguistics among their electives in order to derive the maximum benefit from their studies. Except where stated otherwise, literary texts are, at all levels, studied in the original language. Students registering in these courses will be expected to have the appropriate knowledge.

Study Abroad

The School of Languages and Literatures encourages students in the German program to spend 1 or 2 semesters in a German speaking country to continue their studies at the University level. Credit for programs of study successfully completed may be applied towards the University of Guelph degree requirements. For more information, contact the Centre for International Program (<https://www.uoguelph.ca/cip/>) or the School of Languages and Literatures.

The German minor is currently suspended. For more information, please contact the School of Languages and Literatures.
