

HISTORY (HIST)

Department of History, College of Arts

Courses marked (H) in the description are designed as honours courses.

Access to all 4000 level history courses is restricted to students in the B.A. Honours program who have completed at least 10.00 university credits and who have achieved at least a 70% average in all history course attempts. Students in a general program wishing to take these courses must obtain the permission of instructors concerned. Students wishing to take a 3000-level course must have completed at least 7.50 credits in university courses.

Students wishing to take a 2000-level course must have completed at least 2.00 credits in university courses. The History Department advises students entering semester 2 who wish to take a 2000-level course to enroll in one of the core courses (HIST*2100 Histories of Canada to 1867, HIST*2450 The Practising Historian and HIST*2600 Histories of Canada Since 1867) that offer additional instructional support. Students should note the prerequisite requirements of upper level courses in planning their individual programs.
